Bonus Discs | Six New Pop & Electronic Releases

Here are some of the cool albums I didn't have time to review this week.

Labrinth sparks euphoria, Chromatics go grey, Carla dal Forno looks sharp and more this week. I didn't have time to write about these albums, but I gave them a quick scan and liked what I heard. Check them out below, along with quotes from their press releases. I've included Bandcamp links where possible so you can buy the music straight from the source — assuming you like what you hear too.

Josie Cotton Everything is Oh Yeah

THE PRESS RELEASE: "From the music sensation who asked Johnny, Are You Queer?, the incredibly talented Josie Cotton, comes this long lost album originally recorded in 1986 but never released...UNTIL NOW! This album was to be the follow up to Josie's second album for Elektra, the critically acclaimed From The Hip! Features special guest appearances by Brian Setzer of The Stray Cats, Hunt Sales (Iggy Pop, Tin Machine), producer Geza X (Dead Kennedys, Germs), Paul Roessler (45 Grave, Nina Hagen) and more!"
