

instinct

From Ambient to Iridescent to Pop and Country, New Music Review

October 7, 2024 by Jeremy Hinks

There's been so much new fun wonderful music released recently. We wanted to share a quick roundup for to start the week off. Here are some highlights of the new tunes, in no particular order, oh and some DRAG: The Musical gossip at the end.

Josie Cotton

Since we are creeping up on Halloween, let's fire it up. New Wave Fave Josie Cotton and Kevin Preston released a cover of Chuck Berry's "Trick or Treat". She has been making music beloved of the community since "Johnny Are You Queer" and has no signs of stopping. So, bust out the go-go dancing shoes and get your Halloween Josie Cotton on. If you don't remember, check here for our interview with her. Just remember, Josie Cotton can do no wrong.

