Josie Cotton has released a new video for her cover of the seasonal track "Trick or Treat" that co-stars Kevin Preston of Prima Donna, who currently plays guitar in Green Day.

Cotton says:

If there's a plot line for this video, I wish someone would let me know.

Preston adds:

Playing dress up with Josie Cotton is always a blast...I got to be Frankenstein. Enough said!

The Halloween-themed video for the '50s-style cover of Chuck Berry's classic song stars the pair in different costumes while they duet to the spooky tune.

Cotton adds:

Making the video was more like an insanely fun trainwreck, moving between worlds. And let's face it, monsters are just better at parties.

Filmed at Kitten Robot Studios in Los Angeles, CA and directed by Kent Holmes, the video is the latest in a string of new music from Cotton, including re-releasing her classic albums via her own Kitten Robot Records.
